

Grando and Nix share the same talent which unites them much more as each one feels greater empathy for the Other, manifested through their respect.

Helios as always optimistic and great friend, love him for his emanation and radiance.

Finally, we have Kyklos who knows that his function is to deliver, take away and transform his most precious gift of forgiveness.

Thus each one gives and contributes because they have understood that their responsibility is to learn and transcend.

We, his earthly brothers, have equal gifts and talents, but sometimes we forget our responsibility, never forget that a gift or talent that is not placed at the service of humanity will be taken away or canceled. If we want to continue conserving our house we give importance to Our values.

THE END

