

READING

Practice

A parent or tutor should read to the student and help the student to record their answers.

~~~~~
The ending of a story tells how the problem was solved.
~~~~~

Listen to the story. Bunny wanted to know what the world outside the forest was like. How was this problem solved?

Bunny and Crow live in the forest. Bunny has soft white fur and long floppy ears. She lives in a nice little house under a rock. She likes to hop through the bushes. She likes to visit her animal friends. But she always wondered what the world outside the forest was like.

Crow has shiny black feathers. His house is a nice nest at the top of a tree. He likes to fly high above the forest. He likes to fly over rivers and towns outside the forest.

One day, Bunny saw Crow sitting in a tree. "Hello Crow!" she called. "Can you tell me what the world is like outside the forest?" So Crow told Bunny all about the rivers and towns outside the forest. Bunny and Crow became good friends

1. How was the problem in this story solved?
Circle the best answer.

Crow tells Bunny all about the rivers and towns outside the forest.	Bunny wants to know what the world is like outside the forest.	Bunny doesn't have any friends.
---	--	---------------------------------

Listen to the story. Sammy was sad when the zoo keepers had to take down the rope swings. How was this problem solved?

Sammy is a funny little monkey. He lives in a zoo. He likes to eat bananas and play in the treetops. There are lots of other little monkeys in the monkey yard. They like to play on the rope swings and chase each other around.

One day, the zoo keepers had to take down the swings because the ropes were getting old. They might break, and the monkeys might get hurt. Sammy was sad. He sat down under a tree.

Then another little monkey ran over to Sammy. "Race you to the top of this tree!" the little monkey said. Sammy jumped up. He liked this new game! Soon all the monkeys were racing each other up the trees. They all liked this new game.

2. How was the problem in this story solved?

Circle the best answer.

The zoo keepers took down the rope swings.	Sammy and the other monkeys played in the tree.	Sammy doesn't like to eat bananas.
--	---	------------------------------------

~~~~~

3. What is one of your favorite stories?

_____

4. What is the problem in the middle of that story?

_____

5. How was that problem solved?

_____